Girl Guides
Singapore

The Singapore
Scout Association

24 GIRL GUIDES & SCOUTS RECEIVE THE HIGHEST AWARDS FROM PRESIDENT S R NATHAN

SINGAPORE, 6 December 2007 - 12 Girl Guides from Girl Guides Singapore (GGS) and 12 Scouts from the Singapore Scout Association (SSA) will be honored at the President's Guide Award and the President's Scout Award at the ISTANA.

The recipients will receive the awards from President S R Nathan, the Chief Scout of Singapore.

The citation for the recipients read:

"The President's Scout Award and the President's Guide Award are presented to our nation's most all-rounded Venture Scouts and Girl Guides in recognition of their excellent performance, dedication to the movement and service to the community. The award represents the pinnacle of achievement for these Venture Scouts and Girl Guides and indicates their preparedness for a lifetime of service to God, nation and all mankind."

The tremendous support these recipients have received from the schools, the Principals, their Venture Scout Leaders/ Guiders and parents has made it possible for them to overcome the rigours of various stringent tests in order to attain this Award. Those that make it to the Award should be held up as role models for other Girl Guides and scouts to emulate.

The Girl Guides Singapore and Singapore Scout Association congratulate all recipients of the Award. Added Miss Yvonne Lim, Chief Commissioner, GGS, "I congratulate all recipients of the President's Guide Award and President's Scout Award. They have overcome their own odds and achieved the award. Well done!"
