

OUTSTANDING PRESIDENT'S GUIDE AWARDEES

Lim Hui Jun Amanda (Nanyang Girls' High School)

Amanda is the Company Leader of Nanyang Girls' High School and has actively helped the company in Guides project. She joined the Girl Guides' as she felt that the 5-point programme would aid her personal development and skills for life. She is known to have creative ideas in bonding the younger Guides from her company in various activities especially in the foot drill practices. She leads by example, often generously putting her responsibilities above herself.

Her interests include swimming and playing the piano. She was awarded the National Survival Swimming Award-Gold in 2005 and currently is working towards the Grade 8 Certification in Piano. Academically she has been actively participating in the English, Mathematics and Computer Skills International Competition by University of New South Wales where she was awarded distinctions and credits in various events.

Sanusha d/o S Sritharan - Raffles Girls' School (Secondary)

Sanusha is an outstanding all-round student who has excelled both academically and in co-curricular activities. Always pushing herself to exceed her own limits and to move out of her comfort zone, she has attained the highest accolade not only academically but also in Guides, the Fine Arts and Science. She has received many awards among which are the Young Zoologist Award and the University of New South Wales International Competition for schools in Science. As a former Brownie, Sanusha had also attained the Chief Commissioner's Badge, the highest award for Brownies.

Besides her outstanding achievements as a Girl Guide, Sanusha is much involved in the Indian Community, taking part in the Singapore Indian Fine Arts Society Dance and singing competitions as well as representing the Sri Senpaga Vinayagar Temple in the Annual National Religious competition.
