

PRESS RELEASE

Academically, she has attained the Singapore-MOE Award, Raffles Girls' School Outstanding Academic Performance Award, Singapore Indian Development Association (SINDA) Academic Excellence Award, and she was also the top Indian Student for PSLE in 2004.

Her dedication is well-recognised through her involvement in her Girl Guiding activities and her achievement of 32 proficiency badges. Sanusha performed in a Piano recital at the Esplanade in 2001, appeared as a local artiste in the Singapore Arts Festival 2006 and the 6th Singapore Music and Dance Festival in 2008. She attained the Certificate of Merit in both the Bharathanatyam (Indian Classical Dance) and Sangeetham (Indian Vocal) in 2006.

Lim May Ern Rachel (Sengkang Secondary School)

Rachel is the Company Leader of Sengkang Secondary School and she is well-liked by her fellow Guides and Guiders. Rachel is a strong believer of the Guide Law number 10 (A Guide is self-disciplined in what she thinks, says and does). Her fellow Guides describe her to be responsible, cheerful and a democratic leader. She loves the outdoors and has been participating in her school's annual Girl Guide Camps since 2005.

Academically she has received the Eagles Award 2007 and the MOE Edusave scholarship Awards in 2005, 2006 and 2007.